

He Reads To Me Spring 2017

The coveted 'NKP Mantle of Literacy' banner will be awarded to the organization with the most volunteer Male Role Model Readers at our 'He Reads to Me' literacy event on May 18, 2017.

If your organization delivers the most male readers on May 18th, YOU will be awarded the 'Mantle of Literacy' banner to be displayed in your building until the next 'He Reads to Me' event.

The banner now adorns the walls of the Hackensack Police Department! Way to Go, HPD!!

So...are YOU up to the challenge?

Contact Mrs. Arlena Jones at ajones@hackensackschools.org

AARP New Jersey and the Fellowship of Black Churches of Hackensack & Vicinity invite you to bring your old personal and financial documents (limit 6 bags/boxes per participant) and watch as your sensitive information is securely destroyed.

PENTECOST SUNDAY,
 JUNE 4 WEAR RED

The color red symbolizes joy and the fire of the Holy Spirit. We wear RED to remind us of the fire of the Spirit.

In the New Testament, reference to the Pentecost can be found in the Book of Acts 2:1-13. It tells how the Holy Spirit descended from heaven to bless the disciples of Jesus Christ, causing them to speak in different tongues. It also accounts the time when the Savior ascended to heaven as a resurrected being.

Acts 2:1-4 reads, "Suddenly, there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the houses where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues, and the spirit gave them utterance."
